Parent-Teacher Conferences - Wednesday, October 19th

Parent-Teacher Conferences this year will be in-person, Zoom, or a phone call. There is no school on Wednesday, October 19th to accommodate these conferences. (Pre-K will be in session on 10/19).

Sign-up for specific teachers by clicking on links below. However, some notes about signing up:

- It is always parents' choice if they feel they do not need a conference during this time. If you are unsure, reach out to your teacher to find out. If you do not need one, we have a link where you can say "Thanks But No Thanks- No Conference Needed". We certainly want to provide parents the opportunity if you want to conference with your student's teacher.
- The conference will be an in-person conference by default. If you would prefer Zoom or a phone call please indicate that in the Comments on the sign-up. However, please DO NOT put your phone number in the Comments section...please send that to the teacher separately because anything typed in the Comments will appear for all to see. Simply write "Phone Call Preferred".
- Due to time constraints, parents can only sign up for ONE time slot per teacher. Please do not sign up for multiple time slots so other parents have the opportunity to sign up.
- Please respect our teachers' time and schedules. Please know that the time schedule must be maintained since other parents are making arrangements to have their conference at assigned times. Please do not be offended if at the end of the time your teacher tells you they have to go because they truly will have to move on to the next one.
