

Governor Braun to address Catholic Business Exchange

Mike Braun, Indiana's 52nd Governor, will address the March Catholic Business Exchange. His theme will be: A Fireside Chat with Governor Mike Braun. Governor Braun received his undergraduate degree from Wabash College and an MBA from Harvard Business School. After business school, he returned to his hometown of Jasper and worked for a national kitchen cabinet company. In 1981, he took over a farm equipment manufacturer called Meyer Body and grew it from 15 employees to a national company that today has thousands of employees in 38 states. He was a State Representative from 2014-2017, was elected to the U.S. Senate in 2018 and became the 52nd Governor of Indiana in January of this year. Mike and Maureen have been married 48 years and attend St. Joseph Catholic Church in Jasper. They have four adult children and seven grandchildren. The event is March 20, at the Northside Events and Social Club. Mass is offered at 7am and the program will be finished by 9am. Cost for the program includes a great breakfast and is $20 in advance for members and $25 for non-members. Registration is required by noon, Tuesday March 18.
